Order Terms and Conditions

Trees may be late due to climatic conditions.

All orders are subject to stock on hand, crop, and climate conditions, acts of God and availability.

We will endeavour to get the trees ready on time, our reputation is at stake.

Late accepting of delivery by client will then get trees at the next available dispatch date.

More than likely 3 - 6 months.

Or trees that are ready and not taken within 30 days are subject to a holding fee of R1/unit per month.

An estimated date will be given at date of order.

Once deposit is paid a new estimated date will be given updated in a 6 monthly basis.

And please make sure you get correspondence to make sure your delivery date has not moved.

No orders or changes to orders will be official on WhatsApp. It must be confirmed on email.

Any changes or additions need to go through colinr@ttagric.co.za AND nursery@ttagric.co.za.

These changes will then be confirmed on email. Please ensure that a response is received from T&T Horticulture.

If the client postpones the order, there will be an amount to be paid based on the difference in order price to current year's price.
